

2012 Minority Health Month

Calendar of Events

1. Ingham County Health Department – “Love and Basketball, 3 on 3 Basketball Tournament – Cheerleading Clinic During Game “ A Basketball Tournament Raising Awareness about HIV/AIDs, Friday August 3, 2012 6pm-9pm, Letts Community Center, 1220 Kalamazoo Street, Lansing, MI.
2. Better Detroit Movement-Stomping out HIV Youth Step Show and Resource Fair – Aug 25, 2012, 12pm-4 p.m. Don Bosco Community Center 19321 West Chicago St. Detroit, MI 48228.
3. Genesee County Mental Health, Back to School Rally, September 15th at the Perani Arena in Flint Michigan.
4. The Corner Health Center – “Rock the Block” – A community event created for youth by youth to raise awareness about the resources for young people in downtown Ypsilanti. The event will take place at the Ypsilanti District Library, Community Records and the B-Side. Date: September 15, 2012, Time: 2-5 p.m. Location: Washington Street in Downtown Ypsilanti (between Pearl Street & Michigan Avenue).
* Activities will include free food, airbrush tattoos, music, games, contests, giveaways.
5. The Horizons Project (Wayne State University) – Transformations: The Unveiling – Date: Friday, September 21, 2012, Time: 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. Wayne State Student Center Ballroom, 5221 Gullen Mall, Detroit, MI 48202. The campaign will highlight the unique and specific needs of transgender females, provide an artistic outlet for youth to express these needs, and to promote HIV/AIDS awareness. The event will include presentation, and an awards ceremony to honor and celebrate transgender youth inclusion in the fight against HIV/AIDS.